Jay Peak Resort, for the second year in a row, has been awarded the 2025 Governor's Excellence in Worksite Wellness Silver Award, an acknowledgement of the efforts put forth to promote wellness initiatives within the workplace.

Jay Peak's wellness programming provides team members with resources, support and education on a multitude of wellness topics, from physical and financial health to work-life balance and mental health, just to name a few. Jay Peak values the health and wellbeing of all of its team members, continuing to deliver a commitment to promoting a culture of wellbeing in the workplace.

The resort will receive this award at the Vermont Safety and Health Council's 29th Annual Expo on October 31, 2025, at the Killington Grand Resort.
